The Board of Directors shall appoint a Secretary, who may be chosen from among its members or from outside the Board.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors may, by a written resolution, delegate some of their powers to other members of the Board or to third parties for the performance of a specific act or acts. In the absence of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman shall assume the Chairman's duties, in instances where the Board of Directors has a Deputy Chairman.

Article 22: Executive Committee:

The Board of Directors shall form an executive committee in compliance with the relevant applicable laws, regulations, and instructions, subject to obtaining SAMA's prior written non-objection certificate.

Article 23: Audit Committee:

The Board of Directors shall form an audit committee in compliance with the relevant applicable laws, regulations, and instructions, subject to obtaining SAMA's prior written non-objection certificate.

Article 24: Board Meetings:

Without prejudice to applicable laws and regulations, the Board of Directors shall convene at any location it designates at least four (4) times a year, with a minimum of one (1) meeting every three (3) months. Such meetings shall be called by the Chairman or at the request of a Board member, and the invitation shall include the agenda. The Chairman shall call a meeting if a written request is submitted by any Board member to discuss any matters. Invitations shall be sent to each member via email or other means of communication at least five (5) days prior to the scheduled meeting. The Board of Directors shall designate the venue for its meetings, which may also be held using modern technological means. In the event of the Chairman's absence from any meeting, the Deputy Chairman shall preside; should both be absent, a Board member elected by the attending members for that purpose shall chair the meeting. Invitations may be sent with less than five (5) days' notice if an emergency meeting is required.

Article 25: Board Meetings and Resolutions:

A Board meeting shall not be valid unless attended by at least five (5) members, either in person or by proxy of another Board member. No single member may act as a proxy for more than one (1) member of the Board of Directors. Board meetings may also be attended, and resolutions voted on, via video conference, audio conference, or both, in accordance with relevant regulations and instructions. A Board member's attendance by any of these methods shall constitute in-person presence. Board resolutions shall be passed by a majority vote of the members present or represented at the meeting. In the event of a tie, the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman shall cast the deciding vote. Board resolutions may also be passed by circulation, unless any member submits a written request for a Board meeting to deliberate on the matter.

Amendment Date: 1/7/2025 43 - 61

Article 26: Disclosure of Personal Interests and Competition with the Company:

A member of the Board of Directors or any of its committees shall not have any direct or indirect interest in business and contracts carried out for the Company's account, unless authorized by the Ordinary General Assembly or by the Board of Directors under a delegation from the Ordinary General Assembly, and in compliance with the controls established by the competent authority. A Board member shall disclose to the Board any direct or indirect interest they may have in the business and contracts carried out for the Company's account. Such disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. This member shall not participate in the voting on the resolution issued by the Board or by the shareholders' general assemblies concerning this matter. The Board Chairman shall inform the Ordinary General Assembly, when it convenes, of any business and contracts in which a Board member holds a direct or indirect interest. This notification shall be accompanied by a specific report from the Company's external auditor. Should a Board member fail to disclose their interest as referred to above, the Company or any interested party may petition the competent judicial authority to nullify the contract or to compel the member to return any profit or benefit obtained as a result. Board members who objected to the resolution shall be exempt from liability, provided they expressly recorded their objection in the meeting minutes. Absence from the meeting at which the resolution was passed does not constitute grounds for exemption from liability, unless it is proven that the absent member was unaware of the resolution or was unable to object to it after becoming aware. Liability for damages arising from the aforementioned business and contracts shall rest with the party having an interest in the business or contract, as well as with the Board members if they are found to have been negligent or to have failed in fulfilling their obligations in violation of applicable laws or regulations. This includes cases where such business and contracts are proven to be unfair, involve a conflict of interest, and cause harm to shareholders. Moreover, a Board member may not engage in any activity that competes with the Company, nor may they compete with the Company in any of its lines of business. Otherwise, the Company shall have the right to seek appropriate compensation before the competent judicial authority, unless the member has obtained authorization from the Ordinary General Assembly permitting such activity, and in accordance with the controls established by the competent authority. Within the scope of its object, and under the terms and conditions it applies in its dealings with the public, and in accordance with the provisions of the Banking Control Law and the instructions issued by SAMA, the Company may extend loans to any of its Board members or shareholders, grant them credit, or guarantee their loans contracted with third parties.

Amendment Date: 1/7/2025 44 - 61

Article 27: Issuing Board Resolutions on Urgent Matters

The Board of Directors may pass resolutions on urgent matters by circulation to all members, unless any member submits a written request for a Board meeting to deliberate on the matter. Such resolutions shall be passed by a majority vote of the Board members and be presented at the next Board meeting for inclusion in the minutes.

Article 28: Deliberations of the Board:

1. The Secretary shall prepare minutes documenting the Board of Directors' deliberations and resolutions, which shall be signed by the meeting Chairman, attending Board members, and the Secretary; 2 The minutes shall be maintained in a dedicated register, duly signed by the Chairman and the Secretary; 3. Modern technological means may be employed for signing, recording deliberations and resolutions, and maintaining the minutes.

Article 29: Expiry of the Term of the Board of Directors

The Board's term shall not exceed three (3) years, in compliance with SAMA's directives. This provision could not be included in its relevant clause due to the lack of responsiveness of the automated system.

Article 30: Expiry of the Board's Term, Resignation of Its members, or Vacancy of Membership:

1. Before the expiry of its term, the Board of Directors shall call the Ordinary General Assembly to convene to elect a new Board. If the election cannot be conducted upon expiry of the current Board's term, the incumbent members shall continue their duties until a new Board is elected, subject to SAMA's prior written non-objection certificate. Under no circumstances may the extended term exceed ninety (90) days from the original expiry date. During this period, the Board shall take all necessary measures to facilitate the election of a new Board before the continuation period lapses; 2. In the event of the Chairman and Board members' resignation, they shall call the Ordinary General Assembly for convention to elect a new Board. The resignation shall only take effect upon the new Board's election, provided that the resigning Board's tenure does not exceed one hundred and twenty (120) days from the resignation date. During this interim period, the Board shall take the necessary steps to elect a new Board before the continuation period expires; 3. A Board member may resign by submitting a written notice to the Chairman. If the Chairman resigns, the notice shall be submitted to the remaining Board members and the Secretary. The resignation becomes effective on the date specified in the notice, subject to notification of the Ministry of Commerce's Commercial Register within fifteen (15) days, and SAMA and the Capital Market Authority within five (5) business days thereafter; 4. If a Board member's position becomes vacant due to death or resignation without affecting the quorum for valid Board meetings, the Board may temporarily appoint a replacement, provided the appointee meets the requisite experience and competence. The Ministry of Commerce's Commercial Register shall be notified within fifteen (15) days,

Amendment Date: 1/7/2025 45 - 61

and SAMA and the Capital Market Authority within five (5) business days of the appointment. SAMA and regulatory authorities shall receive the necessary appointment and disclosure documents, and the Board shall secure SAMA's prior written non-objection certificate. The appointment shall be ratified by the Ordinary General Assembly at its first meeting, and the new member shall serve the remainder of the predecessor's term; 5. If the Board's membership falls below the minimum required under the Companies Law or these Articles, rendering meetings invalid, the Ordinary General Assembly shall be convened within sixty (60) days to elect additional members.

Article 31: Powers of the Board

Without prejudice to the powers vested in the General Assembly, the Board of Directors shall have the broadest authority to manage the Company's affairs and oversee its operations in a manner that achieves its object under these Articles, provided that these Articles shall not expressly require that such acts be conducted by the General Assembly. In performing its duties, the Board may directly exercise all authorities and perform all acts and actions that the Company is entitled to undertake. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to enter into loans and credit facilities for periods exceeding three (3) years, to purchase and sell real estate, to mortgage real estate, to discharge the Company's debtors, to conclude settlements, to establish companies and entities, and to participate in and own shares or interests in other companies or institutions inside and outside the Kingdom, as well as to oversee and manage them. The Board of Directors shall have full authority to enter into a technical management agreement between the Company and any specialized company in banking operations or to enter into a partnership with such a company under the prior approval of SAMA. The Board of Directors shall also have the right to delegate any of its powers to its Chairman and/or to the Managing Director or to any member of the Board of Directors or to any committee formed from among the Board members or to any authorized employee or staff member of the Company. Furthermore, the Board may from time to time authorize any person to carry out a specific authority or authorities for such period as the Board may deem appropriate. However, the Board of Directors may not donate any part of the Company's funds except within the limits prescribed by the applicable laws and regulations in the Kingdom.

Article 32: Powers of the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, Managing Director, and Secretary

The Board of Directors shall appoint from among its members a Chairman, a deputy Chairman, and a managing director. It is not permitted to combine the position of Chairman with any other executive position in the Company. The Chairman shall be responsible for presiding over the meetings of the Board and the General Assembly. The Chairman shall also perform any other tasks assigned thereto by the Board. If the Chairman is absent, the Deputy Chairman shall assume his role. The Chief Executive Officer and the Managing Director shall be responsible for implementing the Company's policies as determined by the Board of Directors, supervising the Company's operations, and acting as the Company's executive officer. The Board of Directors may delegate or assign to the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director any powers exercised by the licenses, sign the Company's contracts with third parties, publish articles of association and their summaries and amendments, deal with local and international banks and financial institutions, sign, receive, and deliver documents. The Chairman may, by written resolution, delegate part of his powers to another member of the Board or to a third party to perform one or more specific acts. The Managing Director may also be granted representative authority, and they or the Chairman may delegate representation of the Company in whole or in part in respect of the powers set out in this Article to another person, and the authorized person may sub-delegate such powers to others, subject to the provisions of the Banking Control Law. The remuneration of the Chairman and the Managing Director, in addition to the remuneration granted to Board members, shall be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall appoint a secretary from among its members or others, who shall be responsible for recording the deliberations and resolutions of the Board and entering them in the relevant register. The duties and remuneration of the Secretary shall be determined by a resolution of the Board. The term of the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, Managing Director, and Secretary—if any of them is also a member of the Board-shall not exceed the duration of their membership on the Board. They may be re-elected. The Board may remove the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, Managing Director, Secretary, or any of them from their positions, without this affecting their membership on the Board. Prior written non-objection from SAMA shall be obtained for the selection and appointment of the individuals in the positions stated in this Article.

Chapter 4: Shareholders' Assemblies

Article 33: Convening of Assemblies

- General and special assemblies shall be convened upon an invitation by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall call the Ordinary General Assembly to convene within thirty (30) days from the date of a request submitted by the auditor or by one or more shareholders representing at least ten percent (10%) of the Company's voting shares. The auditor may also call for the Ordinary General Assembly to convene if the Board fails to issue such an invitation within thirty (30) days from the date of the auditor's request.
- 2. The request under Paragraph 1 shall specify the agenda items for shareholder voting.

- b. The venue, date, and time of the meeting.
- c. The type of assembly—whether a general or a special assembly.
- d. The agenda, including the items proposed for shareholder voting.

Article 34: Voting in Assemblies

Board members shall be elected through cumulative voting. Board members may not participate in voting on resolutions of the assembly concerning transactions and contracts in which they have a direct or indirect interest or where a conflict of interest exists.

Article 35: Preparation of Assembly Minutes

The assembly minutes shall be prepared to document attendees (in person/proxy) and their shareholdings, the number of votes attached to such shares, the resolutions adopted, votes cast for/against resolutions, and a summary of discussions. The minutes shall be regularly recorded in a special register after each meeting and signed by the Chairman, secretary, and vote counters.

Article 36: Shareholders' Assemblies

A duly constituted General Assembly shall represent all shareholders, and its resolutions passed within the limits of its competence hereunder shall be binding upon all shareholders. Shareholders' assemblies shall be held in the city where the Company's Head Office is located, as per Article 3, or in any other location designated by the Board of Directors.

Article 37: General Assembly of Shareholders

1. The General Assembly of shareholders shall be chaired by the Chairman, or in their absence, by the Deputy Chairman, or by Board-delegated member. If none are available, the assembly shall be chaired by a person elected by the shareholders through voting, from among the board members or otherwise. The Chairman shall appoint a secretary of the Assembly, and vote counters from attending shareholders.
2. Shareholder may attend the General Assembly Meeting or appoint another a non-Board proxy to attend on their behalf.
3. Meetings, deliberations, and voting may be conducted via modern technological means.

Article 38: Constituent Assembly

The Constituent Assembly shall have jurisdiction over the matters stated in the Companies Law.

Amendment Date: 1/7/2025 49 - 61

Article 39: Ordinary General Assembly

Except for matters within the competence of the Extraordinary General Assembly, the Ordinary General Assembly shall have jurisdiction over all matters concerning the Company. The Ordinary General Assembly shall convene at least once per year, during the six months following the end of the Company's financial year. Additional Ordinary General Assembly meetings may be convened whenever necessary.

Article 40: Extraordinary Assemblies

Without prejudice to the provisions of the Banking Control Law, the Extraordinary General Assembly of shareholders shall have the authority to amend these Articles to the extent permitted by the law. In addition to the powers granted to the Extraordinary General Assembly under the law, it may also adopt resolutions on matters ordinarily within the authority of the Ordinary General Assembly, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the Ordinary General Assembly.

Article 41: General Assemblies Attendance Register

Shareholders who wish to attend the Ordinary or Extraordinary General Assembly shall register their names at the Company's Head Office prior to the scheduled meeting time, or through modern technological means.

Article 42: Quorum for the Ordinary General Assembly:

The Ordinary General Assembly shall not be validly convened unless attended by shareholders representing at least one-fourth (1/4) of the shares with voting rights. If this quorum is not met in the first meeting, a second meeting shall be convened under the same conditions stated in Article (91) of the Companies Law within thirty (30) days from the date of the first meeting. The notice for the second meeting shall be published as prescribed in Article 91 of the Companies Law. However, the second meeting may be held one hour after the end of the period specified for the first meeting, provided that the invitation to the first meeting includes a statement to that effect.

In all cases, the second meeting shall be validly held regardless of the number of voting shares represented therein.

Article 43: Quorum for the Extraordinary General Assembly:

The Extraordinary General Assembly shall not be validly convened unless attended by shareholders representing at least one-half (1/2) of the shares with voting rights. If this quorum is not met in the first meeting, a second meeting shall be convened under the same conditions set forth in Article 91 of the Companies Law. However, the second meeting may be held one hour after the end of the period specified for the first meeting, provided that the invitation to the first meeting includes a statement to that effect. In all cases, the second meeting shall be validly held if attended by shareholders representing at least one-fourth (1/4) of the voting shares. If the required quorum is not met in the second meeting, a third meeting shall be called as per the same conditions provided in Article 91. The third meeting shall be validly held regardless of the number of voting shares represented therein, subject to the approval of the competent authorities.

Amendment Date: 1/7/2025 50 - 61

Article 44: Assembly Resolutions

The Ordinary General Assembly shall adopt its resolutions by an absolute majority of the voting shares represented at the meeting. The Extraordinary General Assembly shall adopt resolutions by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting shares represented at the meeting, except for resolutions concerning an increase or decrease of the Company's capital; extension of its term; its dissolution; or merger with another company or institution. In such cases, resolutions shall not be valid unless adopted by a three-fourths (3/4) majority of the voting shares represented and the prior written non-objection of SAMA to become effective. The Board of Directors shall register with the Commercial Register at the Ministry of Commerce all Extraordinary General Assembly resolutions specified in the Implementing Regulations of the Companies Law within fifteen (15) days from their issuance date.

Article 45: Discussions at Assemblies

Every shareholder shall have the right to discuss matters listed in the General Assembly agenda and to direct questions to Board members and the auditor regarding agenda items. The Board or auditor shall respond to shareholder questions provided that such responses do not harm the Company's interests. If a shareholder considers a response unsatisfactory, the matter shall be referred to the General Assembly for final determination.

Chapter 5: Auditors

Article 46: Appointment, Dismissal, and Resignation of the Company's Auditor

The Company shall appoint two or more auditors from among those licensed to practice in the KSA and meet the independence requirements as defined by the professional standards approved in the Kingdom. It is prohibited for the appointed auditor(s) to purchase or sell shares or stocks in the Company whose accounts they audit during the audit period. The auditor(s) shall be appointed annually by the Ordinary General Assembly, which shall also determine their remuneration. The assembly may reappoint the same auditor(s), provided that neither the auditor nor the supervising partner has served for seven consecutive or non-consecutive financial years.

Article 47: Powers of the Auditor

The auditor shall, at any time, have the right to examine all Company documents, review accounting records, and access supporting documents. The auditor may request necessary data and clarifications as necessary to verify the Company's assets, liabilities, and other matters within audit scope. The Board of Directors shall fully enable the auditor to perform their duties without obstruction. If the auditor encounters any difficulty in this regard, they shall formally record the same in a written report submitted to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors fails to facilitate the auditor's work, the auditor shall formally request that the General Assembly be convened to consider the same. The auditor may directly convene the General Assembly if the Board of Directors does not issue the required invitation within thirty days from the date of the auditor's request.

Amendment Date: 1/7/2025 51 - 61

Article 48: Auditors' Report

The auditors shall submit to the Annual General Assembly a comprehensive report prepared as per the applicable auditing standards and SAMA's instructions. The report shall explicitly state the position of the Board of Directors regarding its cooperation in enabling the auditors to obtain all requested data and clarifications and shall disclose any violations discovered of the Companies Law, the Banking Control Law, SAMA's instructions as amended, or the Company's Articles of Association. The report shall also include the auditors' professional opinion on the fairness and accuracy of the Company's financial statements. The auditor shall either read their full report at the General Assembly meeting or present a duly authorized summary thereof at the Annual General Assembly meeting or alternatively circulate it by way of passing resolution as the case may be, according to the provisions of the Companies Law.

Chapter 6: Company Finances and Dividend Distribution

Article 49:

- [1.] The Company's financial year shall consist of twelve consecutive Gregorian calendar months, beginning on January 1 and ending on December 31 of each year.
- 2. An independent financial statement shall be separately prepared for any transitional period resulting from a change to the financial year.

Article 50: Financial Documents

- 1. The Board of Directors shall, at the conclusion of each financial year, prepare the Company's complete financial statements and a detailed report on its activities and financial position for the past financial year, including the proposed method of profit distribution. The Board shall place these documents at the disposal of the auditor (if any) at least forty-five days prior to the scheduled date for convening the Ordinary General Assembly.
- 2. The Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer, and the Chief Financial Officer (if any) shall personally sign the documents referred to in the preceding paragraph. Copies shall be properly deposited at the Company's Head Office and made available to all shareholders at least twenty-one days prior to the scheduled date of the General Assembly meeting.
- 3. The Chairman shall provide all shareholders with the Company's signed financial statements and the Board's report, along with the auditor's report (if any), unless these documents have been officially published through approved modern technological means, at least twenty-one days prior to the scheduled date of the Ordinary General Assembly meeting. The Chairman shall simultaneously send complete copies of these documents to the Ministry of Commerce, CMA, and SAMA within the same twenty-one-day period referred to above.

Amendment Date: 1/7/2025 52 - 61

Article 51: Dividend Distribution

The Ordinary General Assembly, when determining the share of net profits to be allocated to the shares after appropriating the statutory reserve, may decide to form additional reserves in whatever amount it deems sufficient to serve the Company's best interests or to ensure the equitable distribution of stable dividends to shareholders to the greatest extent possible. The Assembly may also properly deduct from net profits reasonable amounts to be allocated for legitimate social purposes benefiting the Company's employees. The Company's annual net profits, as finally determined after deducting all general expenses and other proper costs and after forming all necessary reserves to cover doubtful debts, investment losses, and contingent liabilities (as deemed necessary by the Board of Directors as per the Banking Control Law and SAMA's instructions and other relevant supervisory authorities as may be amended from time to time), shall be distributed as follows: a) The amounts required to pay zakat owed by Saudi shareholders and taxes owed by non-Saudi shareholders shall be calculated in compliance with applicable laws in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The Company shall pay these amounts to the competent authorities. The zakat properly paid on behalf of Saudi shareholders shall be deducted from their respective share of net profits, and the taxes paid on behalf of non-Saudi shareholders shall be similarly deducted from their individual share of net profits; b) No less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the remainder of the net annual profits, after deducting zakat, shall be systematically transferred to the statutory reserve until such reserve equals at least the full paid-up share capital of the Company. The Ordinary General Assembly, acting upon the formal recommendation of the Board of Directors, may set aside a specific percentage of net profits to properly form a voluntary reserve. Such reserve may only be utilized pursuant to a formal resolution of the Extraordinary General Assembly. If the voluntary reserve is not specifically allocated for a designated purpose, the Ordinary General Assembly, upon the official recommendation of the Board of Directors, may properly resolve to use it for the benefit of either the Company or the shareholders; c) An amount not less than two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the paid-up share capital shall be allocated from the remaining profits, after deducting the statutory reserve, zakat, and taxes, for lawful distribution to shareholders. The distribution shall be based on the paid-up value of shares as per the proposal of the Board of Directors and approved by the General Assembly. If the remaining profits due to any particular shareholder are insufficient to pay dividends, the shareholder shall have no legal claim to such unpaid amounts in subsequent year(s). The General Assembly may not, under any circumstances, approve a profit distribution percentage that exceeds that proposed by the Board of Directors; d) The remainder amount, after properly allocating the amounts stated in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) above, shall be utilized in the manner proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the General Assembly; e) The exact ownership percentage of both Saudi and non-Saudi shareholders shall be preserved when calculating all allocations for the statutory reserve and other reserves from the net profits after deducting zakat and taxes. Each group shall contribute to such reserves in proportion to their shares in the Company's capital. Such contributions shall be properly deducted from their respective shares in net profits. Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this Article, and only after obtaining the prior written non-objection of SAMA and as per all relevant regulatory rules, the Company may distribute interim dividends (if any) to its shareholders on either a semi-annual or quarterly basis.

Amendment Date: 1/7/2025 53 - 61

Article 52: Shareholder Dividends

A shareholder shall be entitled to receive their proportionate share of dividends according to the formal resolution of the General Assembly, which shall explicitly specify both the record date and payment date. Dividend entitlement shall be limited to those shareholders whose names appear in the shareholders' register as of the close of business on the designated record date. The Company reserves the right to withhold and apply any dividend amounts toward the settlement of outstanding debts or other financial obligations owed by the shareholder to the Company. The Board of Directors shall execute and implement the General Assembly's dividend distribution resolution by effecting payment to all registered shareholders within fifteen (15) calendar days from the dividend entitlement date specified in either the General Assembly resolution or, where applicable, the Board of Directors' resolution concerning interim dividends.

Chapter 7: Liquidation and Termination of the Company

Article 53: Termination of the Company

The Company shall be dissolved either upon a resolution to terminate its operations prior to its specified duration or upon the natural expiration of its term. The Extraordinary General Assembly shall, based on a proposal from the Board of Directors, determine the method of liquidation and appoint one or more liquidators, defining their powers and remuneration. The Company shall also be dissolved if all its shares are transferred to a single shareholder. In such case, the Company alone shall remain liable for its debts and obligations. However, the sole shareholder shall regularize the Company's status under the Companies Law, the Banking Control Law, and the regulations of SAMA within a period not exceeding one year. Otherwise, the Company shall be dissolved by operation of the law. If the Company's losses reach half of its issued capital, the Board of Directors shall disclose the same and its recommendations regarding the losses within sixty (60) days from the date of its knowledge thereof. The Board shall also convene the Extraordinary General Assembly within one hundred eighty (180) days from the date it became aware of the losses, to decide whether to continue the Company by taking the necessary measures to remedy such losses or to dissolve it. The Company shall be dissolved for any of the reasons for dissolution listed in Article (243) of the Companies Law.
