The Bank reserves the right to charge a replacement fee at the expense of the customer and inform the customer.

5 Credit Limit

- 5-1 The bank sets a limit for the credit card facilities (credit limit) and the customer must comply with this limit with complete precision. The bank sets the credit limit based on the bank risk policy and credit criteria , and it is subject to change from time to time according to the sole discretion of the Bank, and the customer should be notify with the credit limit change. The customer can apply for review of his credit limit at any time and the bank has the absolute right to accept or reject without giving reasons.
- 5-2 If the cardholder exceeds the set credit limit, the bank may stop the card immediately without notice to the cardholder thus all amounts of exceeding the limit become due and immediately payable.

6 Payment of the Card Transactions

- 6-1 The Bank determines , from time to time and in its absolute discretion, the minimum amount that the customer should pay immediately on the payment date specified in the monthly statement and it is a certain percentage of the total due amount on the customer's account statement . The bank should inform the customer on time of this minimum due amount that is at least (5% or SR 200, whichever is higher).
- 6-2 The bank sends the monthly card account statement to the customer at the latest provided address by the customer to the bank. The statement has details of the total due amount on the card and contains the amounts of purchases and cash withdrawals. The statement also includes the date where the customer must pay the minimum due amount to the bank. It also includes any previous unpaid amounts of any previous statement and any amount over the credit limit and any other fees as described in the card use instructions.
- 6-3 The customer has the right to choose between paying the minimum due as specified in the statement sent monthly to him or making a full payment of the total due amount. If the customer did not pay the full due amount, this will be considered as an acceptance from the customer to perform Tawaroq process to repay his due at monthly profit margin as mentioned in the price table. Consequently, the Bank will conduct the Tawaroq process with the customer's agent to enable the bank use the funds obtained by the customer from the process of Tawaroq to repay the total due amount on the card account statement. And the total value of the Tawaroq process will be shown in the next card statement. The Tawaroq process will be due in one month, and the customer is required to repay on the due date of the following month.
- 6-4 For the Tawaroq process, the customer in person or through an authorized agent at AlJazira Bank should perform the Tawaroq process with the bank. For this purpose, it has been agreed between the bank and a third party on the implementation of Tawaroq processes on behalf of the bank's customers; primary cardholders who want to repay their cards' dues through Tawaroq. The power of attorney form is available as part of the card application form and the customer has to sign this form if he desired to perform the process through the power of attorney.
- 6-5 In all cases mentioned above , Tawaroq processes is not taken into action except after the grace period (20 days) from the date of issuing the statement, and the customer should not be delinquent.
- 6-6 If the customer fails to pay the due amount on the due date for three consecutive months, the card will be blocked and the bank will not carry out any Tawaroq processes to repay the existing dues owed by the customer for the use of the card.
- 6-7 When payment is made by check, the customer must submit the check seven (7) days before the due date for the possibility of the clearing.
- 6-8 The customer is entitled to issue standard order to deduct directly from his account at the bank (the assigned account) for the payment of the due amount on the due date. The following additional Terms and Conditions apply the on the standard orders:
  - a) The customer agrees that the bank reserves the right to determine the priority of any of these standard orders related to submitted checks to the assigned account or any other arrangements made with the bank.

- b) The customer agrees that any modification or cancellation of any of the standard orders must reach to the bank at least a week prior to the date of the next due payment.
- 6-9 The customer not signing any sales receipts, coupons, cash withdrawals or postal orders, does not excuse him of his responsibility towards the bank with regard to such sales, cash withdrawals or postal orders. In case the customer's objection to any amount contained in the monthly statement, he must inform the bank within 30 days from the date of issuing the statement according to the mechanism instructed by the bank otherwise, the bank does not guarantee the acceptance of the objection on the transaction performed by bank and / or merchant. A dispute fee will be charged as mentioned in the price table in case the objection is not true.
- 6-10 The bank will use any payments made by the customer to repay the commitments occurred from the use of the card towards the bank under these terms and conditions, according to the order in which the bank decides.
- 6-11 In case the customer's objection processed after performing of the Tawaroq process which includes the amounts objected, then the amounts that will be returned to the card account will be valued of the objected transaction and the calculated profit in the Tawaroq process will be deducted.

7 Fees and Financial Commitments

- 7-1 The customer shall pay a non-refundable annual fee. This fee amount varies for different card type as shown in the card fees table.
- 7-2 The Bank charges a fixed fee for each cash withdrawal transaction as mentioned in the price table and it is recorded on the customer's card account regardless of the withdrawn amount, and the maximum amount for each withdrawal transaction is SR 5,000.
- 7-3 The bank must notify the customer of any amendment or change regarding the following matters in this paragraph relating to the credit card Agreement by sending a written notice to the customer within a period of not less than 45 days prior to the amendment implementation, the matters are as follows:
- 1- Any increase in the annual fees and / or administrative expenses that are charged to the customer.
